Christina Klein, CPA, MST
Managing Partner
Klein Hall CPAs, LLC

Christina Klein, one of the founding partners at Klein Hall CPAs, has over 20 years of experience in tax analysis, virtual CFO services, financial planning, and business advisory services for both small and large businesses as well as individuals.

Christina specializes in tax and accounting matters for closely held and family owned businesses, personal and professional service entities and the healthcare industry. In addition, she helps entrepreneurs start up new companies, as well as provides support for the on-going consulting and compliance that they require.

Christina works heavily with foreign-owned US entities providing accounting and advisory services. Numerous clients, both here and abroad, have reaped the benefits of utilizing outsourced CFO services.

As a versatile accountant, Christina seamlessly balances her professional undertakings with her academic instruction. She has designed, implemented, and taught QuickBooks and accounting courses at the College of DuPage. She also leads the firm's CPE training for taxes.

Moreover, Christina has been published on numerous occasions in the financial sections of the Naperville Sun and the Beacon News. Her insights have been sought out by various not-for-profit organizations where she holds several board positions.
