

SCOTT KLEIN, CPA

Scott Klein, CPA
Partner
Klein Hall CPAs, LLC

Experience, trusted expertise, and a stellar reputation are some of the accolades that Scott Klein brings as one of the founding partners of Klein Hall CPAs. Scott has over 30 years of public accounting experience specializing in healthcare management, financial planning, tax planning, and business advisory services.

Scott provides an invaluable amount of skill and knowledge through his expert work in tax matters for both large and closely held businesses, real estate, and construction firms. He is a highly adaptable professional, whose versatility enables him to cater to the needs of governmental, including schools, as well as non-governmental institutions. He has performed audits for hundreds of commercial and governmental entities and assists them with compliance matters. He has also performed audits of not-for-profit and a variety of other business entities.

As an industry thought leader, Scott has been published in the financial section of the Naperville Sun and has been interviewed on NCTV17. In addition, he is honored to be an annual speaker for over seven years at the National University of Health Services.

Scott is passionate about best-practices and continuous professional development of both individuals and businesses. He participates in the AICPA peer review program, serves as Klein Hall's peer review partner, and leads CPE training.
