

AL TUTJE

MANAGER,
FINANCIAL FUTURIST, CPA

“I KNOW THE DAY-TO-DAY ISSUES MY CLIENTS FACE, BECAUSE I’VE DEALT WITH THEM MYSELF.”

Throughout his lifelong career, which spans more than 23 years and a number of industries, Alan has been a controller, a CFO and a COO. He has seen the financial world from the side of a business leader and the side of a financial advisor, and that helps him make decisions with a well-rounded perspective.

AL SPECIALIZES IN:

- Managing accounting & advisory services for small- to mid-sized commercial businesses through our CFO services, with a focus on the construction and manufacturing industries.
- Assisting executive management with financial analysis and cash-flow projections to better understand the client’s business and plan for the future.
- Bringing experience and wisdom to guide entrepreneurs and business executives through day-to-day business decisions and major milestones.

AS A FINANCIAL FUTURIST, AL:

- Looks past the typical day-to-day operations of each client’s business, analyzing today’s industry trends to prepare for tomorrow’s world.
- Takes a personal approach, becoming an integral part of the client’s path to future success.
- Fosters a culture of continual evolution at Klein Hall, considering new technologies and services while driving the industry forward.

PROFESSIONAL AND CIVIC AFFILIATIONS:

Certified Public Accountant, Illinois
American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)
Construction Finance Managers Association (CFMA)

EDUCATION:

University of Northern Iowa –
Bachelor’s Degree in Accounting